

Moab Brands Trail System

RECOMMENDED ROUTES

Recommended Beginner Route

Gas Line Connector | Rusty Spur | Bar M Loop

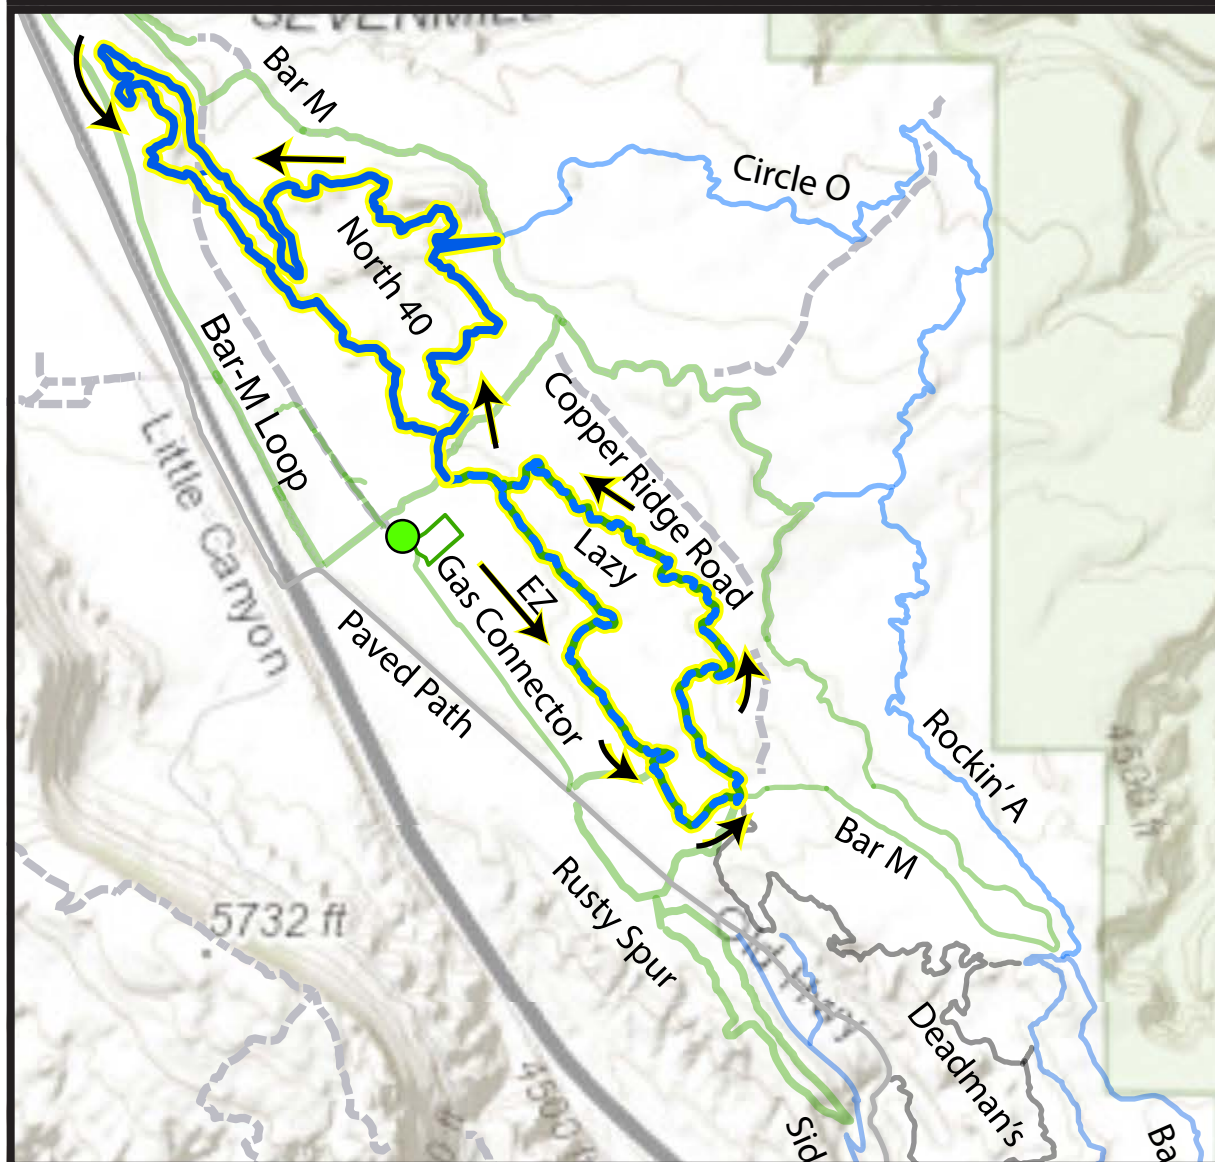

For families or new riders, these trails are a great introduction to the area and desert riding.

This route is a fun, easy mix of singletrack and dirt roads. Begin by riding to the OK Corral bike play area, located at the south end of parking lot, to try out the features in the corral. Then, find the Gas Line Connector Route (0.75 mi) to begin Rusty Spur loop (1.6mi).

If wanting a longer ride, take the Bar M Loop (6 mi) after completing Rusty Spur. Take the short option on Copper Ridge Road or the long option of Bar M out to Bar B Junction.

Total Distance: 7 miles

Estimated Time: 1-3 hours*

Recommended Intermediate Route

(Not So) EZ | (Not So) Lazy | North 40

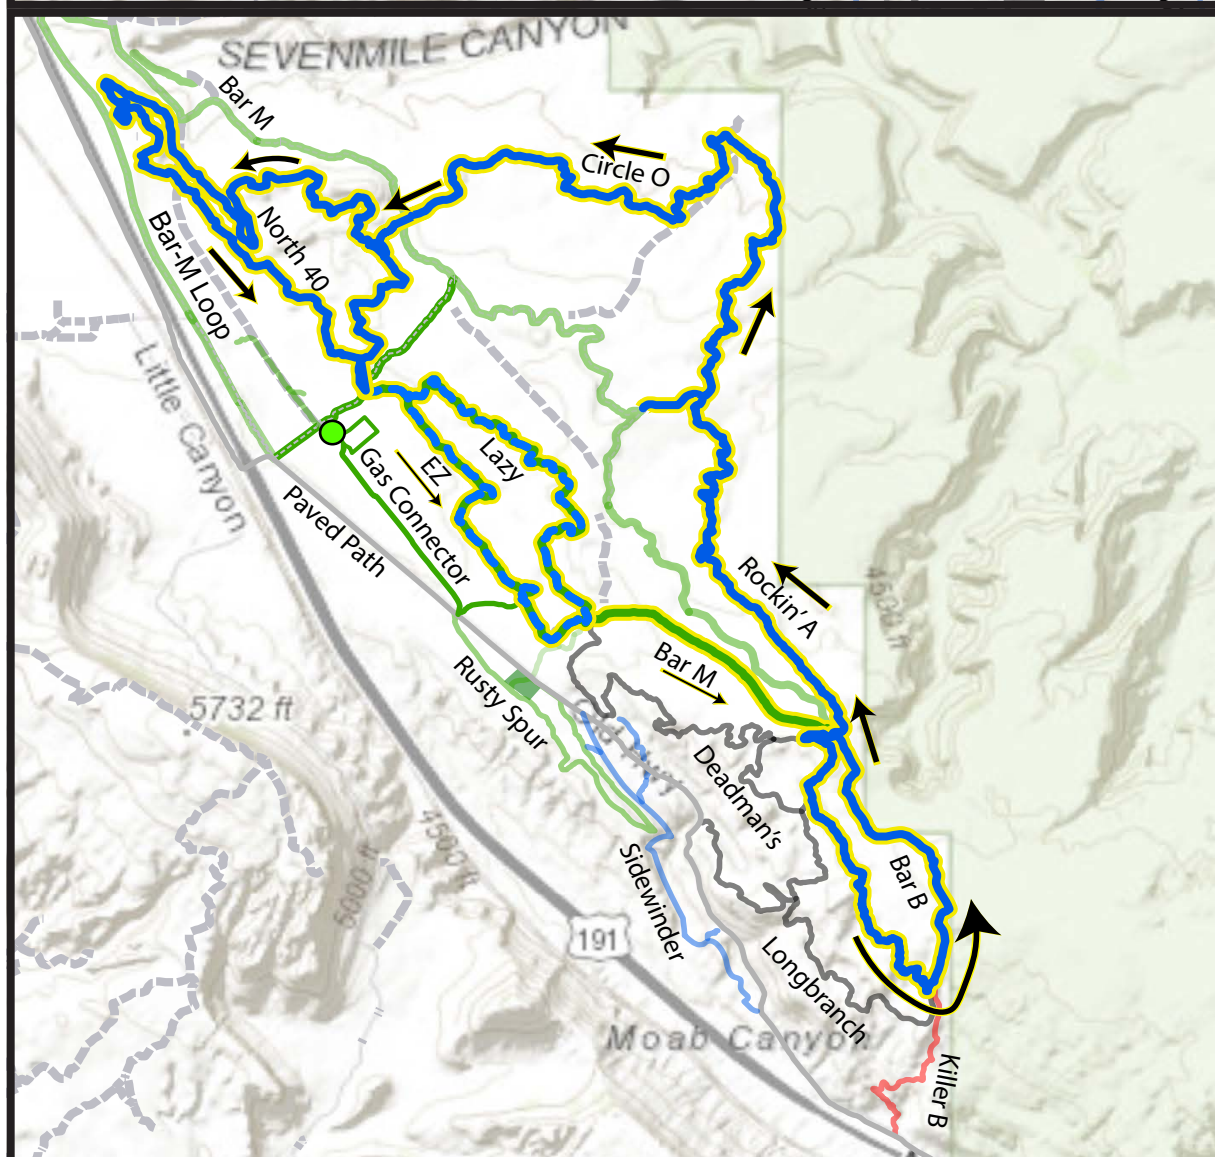

A slightly more technical beginner option. This route is 100% on singletrack! Ride out to the start of EZ and Lazy Loop (3.4 mi).

Begin clockwise on EZ to Rusty Spur Loop.

If desiring more mileage, consider riding the North 40 loop (4 mi) counterclockwise. The obstacles that are a step above what you will find on EZ and Lazy.

Total Distance: 7 miles

Estimated Time: 2-4 hours*

Recommended Intermediate+ Route

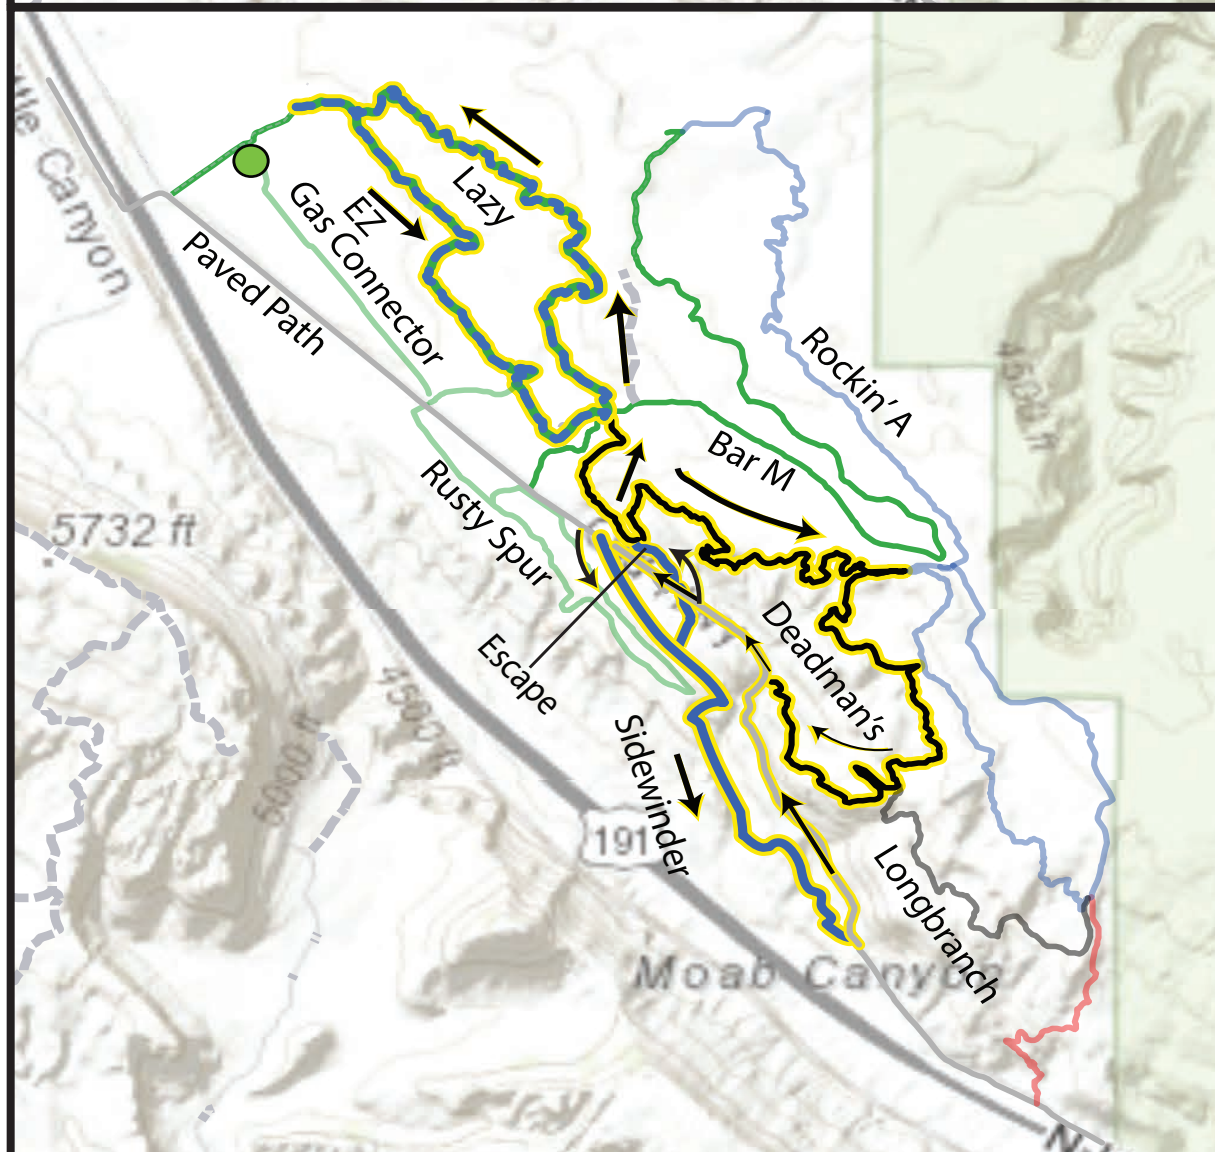

EZ to Bar M Loop South | Bar B | Rockin' A Circle O | North 40

This route takes you further into the southern and eastern parts of the Moab Brands. You will encounter fewer riders and more technical terrain. Rockin' A and Circle O are completely on sandstone. It's easy to get off track, so watch closely for the painted dots on the rock to follow the trails.

There are many options to shorten the route if desired.

Total distance: 9 miles

Estimated Time: 2-4 hours*

Recommended Advanced Route

EZ | Deadman's | Sidewinder | Escape | Lazy

For advanced riders, this route offers rocky, technical climbs and descents. Deadman's will challenge your riding skills with punchy climbs over rock obstacles, twisty descents, and a fast, rocky downhill ending at the paved path. From there, climb up the paved path to Sidewinder, a fast paced downhill ride. Rejoin the paved path and climb back up to the Escape trail. Turn right to connect to Deadman's and back to Lazy. If desiring a longer ride, add on North 40 for 4 additional miles.

Total Distance: 8 miles

Estimated Time: 2-4 hours*

* Note that route completion time may widely vary based on the individual rider's skill level, experience, and various other factors.
